15th & 16th CENTURY ITALIAN PAINTINGS

FROM THE ACCADEMIA CARRARA, BERGAMO

National Gallery of Australia Dec 2011 - Apr 2012

The National Gallery of Australia will present the 15th and 16th centuries of Italian art regarded as the foundation of the grand tradition of European painting. Featuring some of the most famous names in the history of art with paintings by artists never previously exhibited in Australia including Raphael, Botticelli, Bellini and Perugino. Renaissance – 15th & 16th Century Italian Paintings from the Accademia Carrara, Bergamo offers an outstanding opportunity for students to engage with a golden age when learning and the arts flourished as never before. None of the works in this exhibition featuring more than 70 paintings have ever left Europe before.
